Spring 1

Year 6

The World at War

Below is the homework that you are expected to do every week. This homework is not optional and will be checked each week by your teacher.

Read a minimum of 3 times a week. Complete spellings set by your teacher.

You must choose one of the activities in the blue section to complete each week. Tick them off as you go!

1. Imagine you are an evacuee. Write a postcode home about your experience.

2. Write a secret message using Morse code as they would have done in the war. Why was Morse code used?
3. Research Anne Frank and write 10 facts about her.
4. Look at examples of wartime posters and use these to help you design your own wartime poster.
5. Research and create a fact file about all of the key events e.g. Battle of Britain, the Blitz, D-Day and VE Day.
6. Find out where people were evacuated to and from in the UK and show this on a map.
7. Create a graph comparing the size of armies from different nations. Write 5 sentences comparing the data.
8. Write a song to keep people's spirits up during the war. Listen to some first to get some ideas.
9. Research and write a biography about a famous character from World War Two e.g. Winston Churchill, Neville Chamberlain etc.
10. Make an information leaflet for citizens informing them about what to do during an air raid. It could include advice, rules (dos and don'ts), places where shelters can be found etc.
11. Write a script and record a news bulletin about a major event in World War Two.
12. Read and review a war time book e.g. Good-night Mister Tom, Friend or Foe, Carrie's War, War Boy, Blitzed etc.

Below are extra homework activities. They are not compulsory but we would love to see you going above and beyond!

- A. Research rationing and make a meal using only the ingredients and quantities you would have had. Take photos for your homework book or email them to office@costesseyjunior.co.uk
- B. Create your own 3D scene from World War Two. It could include a tank, aircraft, Anderson or air raid shelter.
- C. Design and make a World War Two outfit. You could even include a gas mask!

You will receive a homework book/folder for you to record your homework in.

You do not need to bring your homework in every week to be checked. We will be holding a homework gallery event at the end of this half-term where you can celebrate your hard work!
